Mrs. Storey- Assistant Principal

We are an amazing school.

We have the best
students, the best staff,
and the best families.

We are the Wolf Pack.

What does that mean?

That means we are a pack.

We take care of each other.
We only move forward if we all move forward together.

We are only as strong as our weakest link.

IF YOU
SOMETHING

When you might need to be an upstander...

- Social Media posts that make you uncomfortable
- You hear a rumor that makes you feel unsafe
- You overhear or are directly told about someone feeling like they want to hurt themselves or others
- Suicide threats, both direct ("I am going to kill myself.") and indirect ("I wish I could fall asleep and never wake up."). Can be verbal, written, or posted online.
- Notes of self-harm and planning, including online postings.
- Preoccupation with death in conversation, writing, drawing, and social media.
- Changes in behavior, appearance/hygiene, thoughts, and/or feelings.

What can you do to be an upstander?

Never promise to keep a secret. If you are worried that your friend will be angry with you and not trust you anymore, it is more important to do the best friend thing possible, and that is to tell an adult who can help. Telling a trusted adult can save a life!

At school a trusted adult might be:

- counselors
- teachers
- administrators
- school psychologist
- school social worker
- coaches
- you can also talk to a peer who will help you find a trusted adult

Trusted adults not at school can be:

- your parents
- a family friend
- any adult you trust to help
